CONDITIONS

These are the conditions under which reproduction rights are granted for objects in the collections of the Robert J. Dole Institute of Politics Archive, University of Kansas.

1. All requests for permission to reproduce an image for publication must be made in writing and include the intended use, publisher, and expected date of publication or exhibition.
2. Reproduction is permitted only from negatives, prints, or transparencies supplied by the Dole Institute of Politics Archive.
3. Reproduction of images from the Dole Institute of Politics Archive will be done solely by staff members or their agents. Patrons or researchers to the Institute are not permitted to make reproductions of images from the Dole Institute of Politics Archives with camera, scanner, video camera, photocopier or any other means.

4. To preserve the integrity of its images, the Robert J. Dole Institute Archive does not allow its images to be used out of context or modified in any way. Each image must be reproduced unaltered and in its entirety unless approved in advance by the Dole Institute of Politics Archive. The reproduction must not be cropped, bled off the page, printed on color stock or with colored ink, nor have anything superimposed on the image. When a detail is used the word DETAIL must appear in the credit line.
5. Researchers/applicants must have explicit permission from the Dole Institute of Politics Archive to use any images belonging to the Dole Institute of Politics Archives including those published on this website whether or not a copyright label is attached.
6. Permission to use Dole Institute of Politics Archive photographs on a website or CD will be decided on a case-by-case basis depending upon the nature of the website and/or the CD. Any images used on a website must be accompanied by this statement:

“Images are copyrighted by the Robert J. Dole Institute of Politics Archive, are used by permission, and may not be copied by others for any purpose, including publication on other web sites.”
7. Full documentation credit must appear in immediate proximity to the image, or in the section devoted to photographic credits. The preferred citation is as follows:

Photograph by [photographer’s or creator’s name, if known], Courtesy of the Robert J. Dole Institute of Politics Archive, University of Kansas”
8. The Dole Institute of Politics Archive reserves the right to deny permission to reproduce an image from its collection to any applicant whose product is not acceptable to the Institute for any reason.
9. The Dole Institute of Politics Archive gives no exclusive rights for the use of its material.
10. Permission is granted for one time use only as detailed on the application form. Permission to publish must be obtained in advance for each subsequent display, distribution, edition or reprint.
11. Images from the Dole Institute of Politics Archive must not be used to show or imply Institute endorsement of any commercial product or enterprise.

12. The Dole Institute of Politics Archive reserves the right to approve in proof any use prior to publication, and the Dole Institute of Politics Archive may revoke permission to use the image if in its sole discretion permitted use has been violated.
13. Permission is valid only for the individual, company, or institution to whom it is specifically issued and may not be transferred, assigned, sold, or otherwise disposed of without written permission of the Dole Institute of Politics Archive.
14. In the case where copyright is held by a third party, written permission must be secured by the applicant from that party or their agent, and must accompany the application.
15. The Dole Institute of Politics Archive reserves the right to refuse an order to anyone, including private parties, non-profit organizations, or commercial users if, in the judgment of the Dole Institute of Politics, it suspects a violation of this agreement, or of copyright laws, or that an order may not be in the best interest of the Institute.
