

THE FIRST WOMAN PRESIDENT

A series devoted to the “who, when & how” issues of electing a woman President.

Tuesday, February 7, 2006 8:00 p.m. at the Institute

A Woman President: If Not Now, When?

Carol Moseley-Braun

2004 Presidential contender; former U.S. Ambassador and U.S. Senator (D-IL)
Experienced Presidential contender reveals the challenges of a woman seeking the presidency.

Sunday, February 12, 2006 7:00 p.m. at the Institute

“Madam President: Women Blazing the Leadership Trail”

Eleanor Clift

Newsweek contributing editor, commentator.
Co-author of Madam President: Women Blazing the Leadership Trail
Book Signing will follow Lecture

Noted pundit discusses THE book on the first woman President and women in other leadership roles.

Tuesday, February 14, 2006 7:30 p.m. at the Institute

What Women Really Want...

Celinda Lake (left) & Kellyanne Conway (right)

Political trend-spotters, pollsters & co-authors of What Women Really Want...How American Women are Quietly Erasing Political, Racial, Class, and Religious Lines to Change the Way We Live ~ Book Signing will follow Lecture

Nationally-known pollsters identify trends women are creating that will change our society and our politics.

Wednesday, February 22, 2006 7:30 p.m. at the Institute

The Path to the Presidency: How She Will Win

Mary Beth Cahill, 2004 Presidential campaign manager for John Kerry

Tom Daffron, 2000 Presidential campaign manager for Elizabeth Dole

Two national strategists discuss the dynamics of national campaigns & how they will affect women seeking the Presidency.

Shaheen

Swift

Lee

Tuesday, February 28, 2006 7:30 p.m. at the Institute

Chief Executive: Women as Governors

Gov. Jeanne Shaheen, Former Gov. (D-NH)

Gov. Jane Swift, Former Gov. (R-MA)

Barbara Lee (Moderator), political activist

Two former governors review advantages & disadvantages a woman chief executive might face as President.

All lectures are open to the public. ~ No reservation or ticket needed.

